Calling all guild members!! If you would like to learn to turn an ordinary sweatshirt into a unique jacket then this is the workshop for you. There will be no lecture at our meeting so we will be able to get an early start on learning Linda and Glenda's technique of turning an ordinary sweatshirt into a beautiful garment that you will get ooooo's and ahhhh's from everyone.

Co-Programs Chair
Glenda Holcomb and Linda O'Donnell

P.S. No lecture but we will be installing our new officers. Please be there to vote.

Exciting News! The Hoffman Challenge is coming to Bulloch Hall!Bulloch Hall's 26th Annual Great American Cover-Up Quilt Show
Presented by the Bulloch Hall Quilt Guild

Roswell, GA November 20, 2007 – Started in 1988, the Hoffman Challenge has grown to be a premiere traveling quilt, clothing, and doll collection. The quality of entries and a growing number of exhibit requests have led Hoffman Fabrics to establish twelve traveling collections.

This year the Hoffman Challenge is celebrating its 18th Anniversary. In 1987 the Challenge started with 94 enthusiastic quilters, and in some years the number of entries has grown to more than 700. In addition to the three quilt categories (pieced, appliqué and mixed technique); new categories include clothing (wearable art), accessories, and dolls. While the majority of the entries come from the United States a wide variety of international entries are received. Each year, the top entries are grouped into traveling collections and visit quilt and fiber shows nationwide and in Canada. For more information about the Hoffman Challenge visit their website at www.hoffmanchallenge.com

This year, the Bulloch Hall Quilt Guild is pleased to exhibit 40 of these winning pieces in conjunction with Bulloch Hall's 26th Annual Great American Cover-Up Quilt Show; March 8-16, 2008 at historic Bulloch Hall in Roswell, GA.

Show Coordinators Chris Hartwell and Kay Simodynes confirm that this is the first time we have had the opportunity to display the Hoffman Challenge works here in Roswell. It should prove to be an exciting draw for all quilt and fiber enthusiasts in the area. We anticipate this being our most unique and best-attended show to date!

Show and Tell

Last month Martha Griffin was our only person that had show and tell. Thank you Martha. Lets get busy and get a project or two done and your name will be in the newsletter too. Keep those sewing machines humming and keep stitching. We love seeing all those quilts.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mickey Depre's ideas and creativity were innovative and quite unique, and her talk and slides were an inspiration to us all. I am sure much was learned at the workshop. Our programs continue to be an education in quilting and threat work. Thank you Dianna Carrillo, for bring Mickey to us and for taking over the newsletter. Thank you Joan Garland, for chairing the Nominating Committee. I hope that you get a good response. The supplies you donated for Bonnie Roder and her mission trip were great. Thank you for your response.

MINUTES FOR THE HALL COUNTY QUILT GUILD

January 7, 2008

The meeting was called to order by Co-President Ginny Hendrix at 10:05 AM.

The guest speaker, Mickey Depre, was introduced by Glenna Holcomb who presented a most enjoyable slide show featuring her clever quilt designs. There was a 15 minute break to enjoy the refreshments provided. The meeting resumed at 11:25 AM. A thank you was given to Diana Carrillo for hosting our speaker, Mickey Depre. The minutes were accepted as printed in the recent newsletter. Barbara Wyatt, guild treasurer reported that excess money in the guild checking account has been put into a 7 month CD to gain more interest than we are presently receiving. Carol Nation reminded visitors of the $5.00 visitor fee charged for attending the program. There were 4 visitors and one has joined the guild. Eagle Ranch chairman, Jean Leslie reported that the guild only provided 26 quilts for Eagle Ranch last year and we need to make more as the supply will soon be depleted. She presented the new '08 sign up sheet and those that made Eagle Ranch quilts received a tax letter valuing the quilts at $100.00 each. Jean also suggested that we put aside some money made from the '07 raffle quilt for classes – she reported that many speakers and class presenters are booked 2 to 3 years in advance.

Sunshine: Eliza reported that Charlotte Baker is still in a great deal of pain and will possibly need to have a pain pump and she still is unable to drive. A box was provided for members to put sewing supplies in for Bonnie Roder to take to Haiti when she goes in early February. Ginny Hendrix said that we need to have someone to update the guild scrap book and she will be bringing to the next meeting for members to look at. '08 Raffle quilt: Julie Monroe requested that member attend the basting day on January 21 to finish the simple border – members are to bring sewing machines, sewing supplies and their lunch. A Nominating committee has been formed to get officers for the next fiscal year made up of Julie Monroe, Joan Garland, and Ginny Hendrix. Nancy Folsom will remain as Co-President and Dianna Carrillo will be taking over the newsletter. Glenda Holcomb showed a completed jacket and made suggestions for preparations for the Sweat Shirt Jacket February 3 – she also gave out instructions to those taking the class. Judy Wangemann presented a list of speakers and classes coming up in '08 and they are as follows: March: TBA, April: Melinda Fulkerson – Post Cards; May: Joan Seivenpiper – trunk show and either Lone Star or Giant Dahlia; June: Debby Kratovil, paper piecing; July: Picnic or Spring Luncheon; August: Holly Anderson, purses; September 15: Pat Sloan; October Susan Brittingham; November: TBA; December Christmas Luncheon: January: TBA; February: TBA. Refreshments for the February meeting and class will be provided by: Clemence Stelter, Barbara Wyatt, Donna Glisson, Pat Anderson and Sylvia Hulsey. Members were asked to bring red, white and blue fabric to replace a quilt that in error went to Eagle Ranch that was made by Bonnie Roeder for her grandson. There were 7 delighted winners of door prizes with the main prize going to Judy Wangemann. Show and Tell completed the January meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 12:20 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Pat Anderson

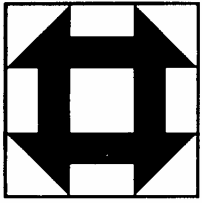

RAFFLE QUILT NEWS

Well, I had the pleasure of taking the raffle quilt to the winner today. The winning ticket was sold at "For The Love of Stitches" in Athens. The winner was Leigh Holland, who bought 6 tickets. She and her daughter met me at F.T.L.O.S. Her daughter is getting married on Saturday and was trying to get Leigh to give her the quilt as a wedding gift. Good try, but, the answer was no. Leigh will be contacting Holly Anderson, for an appraisal will let us know how much it appraises for. I will let you know as soon as I find out.
